

END-USER LICENSE AGREEMENT (EULA)

ACT OF ARCAN E BINDING AND CHARACTER-BORNE Responsibility

PREAMBLE

By invoking the powers of this Character Creator (henceforth “the Tool”), you willingly bind yourself to this sacred accord, forged in digital fire and sealed with infernal wax. This agreement is struck between you (“the Adventurer”) and the unseen, unknowable Architects of this application (“the Developers,” “the Lords of Code,” or “The Undersigned Powers”).

By clicking “Accept,” opening the Tool, or crafting your first fictional soul vessel, you confirm that you have read, understood, and are eternally, irrevocably, enthusiastically bound by the following terms.

1. GRANT OF LICENSE

We bestow upon you a non-exclusive, non-transferable, revocable license to use this Tool to forge characters of all alignments (even Lawful Good), track hit points, record questionable feats, and record the sacred numbers that govern all.

You may not:

- Summon the code via necromancy (i.e., reverse engineer, decompile, or disassemble it).
- Forge clones or doppelgängers (copy or distribute the Tool for profit without permission).
- Attempt to bind the Tool to forbidden devices (unauthorized integrations with other realms/platforms).

2. CHARACTER RIGHTS & RESPONSIBILITIES

Characters generated through the Tool are your responsibility. Should your character perish, be possessed, or start dating a vampire, the Developers shall not be held liable.

You, and only you, are accountable for:

- Keeping your character’s stats honest.
- Managing their chaotic inventory.
- Not abusing loopholes to become an immortal spell-slinging demigod (unless narratively justified).

3. SOULBINDING (DATA COLLECTION)

We may gather data about how you use the Tool—for bug fixes, feature summoning, and summoning future updates. We solemnly swear not to sell your soul to demons. Unless it’s funny.

4. UPDATES AND MODIFICATIONS

The Tool may occasionally be updated by invisible hands. By continuing to use it, you consent to these changes, whether they include new spells, tweaks to class abilities, or unholy UI adjustments.

We reserve the right to alter:

- The balance of power.
- The aesthetics of the scrolls (UI).
- The very rules of this mortal realm (the app).

5. DISCLAIMER OF WARRANTIES

The Tool is provided “as is,” without any warranty of fitness for your particular dungeon. We are not responsible for:

- Dice rolls that defy logic.
- Characters that die tragically at level 2.
- Accidental summoning of demons (or lawsuits).

6. TERMINATION OF THE PACT

This pact remains in effect until you uninstall the Tool, delete your characters, or get disintegrated by a beholder. Breach of these terms may result in the revocation of your license (and possibly a visit from a very angry imp).

7. FINAL CLAUSE (THE FUN BIT)

Should you break this agreement, you agree to face trial in a court of the Nine Hells, represented only by a Level 1 Bard with performance anxiety. You will also owe us one (1) favor, to be collected at a time of our choosing. You may not refuse.

By accepting, you acknowledge your fate and enter this pact knowingly, eyes open, dice ready. So signed,
The Developers
